IMPORTANT INHERITANCE TAX DECISIONS—OFFICE BOYS ARE SCARCE

SACRAMENTO, May 10.—Three important court decisions involving the payment of inheritance taxes have been announced by State Controller John S. Chambers.

The state is the winner in all three cases, the general ground for the state's action being the transfer of property in contemplation of death, obviously to dodge the inheritance tax.

One decision was by Judge Rogers of Ventura, dealing with the estate of the late United States Senator Thomas R. Bard; another was by Judge Coffey of San Francisco in the estate of John Wright, and the third was by Judge Rives of Los Angeles, in the estate of Cornelia Scarborough.

Marks' bill regulating the carrying, possession and sale of firearms has been signed by Governor Stephens and will become effective within a month. It prohibits the sale of firearms to persons under 18; prohibits the manufacture and carrying of blackjacks, sandbags, metal knuckles, etc., and requires dealers to keep an official record of all sales.

The Alameda and Los Angeles county additional superior judge bills also have been given the governor's signature.

No matter how much a high school principal in California may be opposed to military training; no matter how strong he is for pacifism, he cannot stop his school from organizing a company of cadets. He could simply "pocket veto" a petition for the organization of such a company under the old law but recent measures passed by the legislature divest him of such power.

Under the new law, when a majority of the students favor the organization, the principal will not be able to block the way. If he attempts it, the state's appropriation for that school will be cut off. Hence there would be no principal.

P. E. Gammon, prominent fruit grower of Sacramento county, has placed an order with the state employment bureau for ten girls to pick cherries. The pay offered is $1.25 a day and board and it is specified that no girls will be accepted unless they are willing

TO WEAR OVERALLS while at work.

Candy is more effective than bullets in capturing men wanted by the government for alleged crime, Larry Conlon, deputy U. S. Marshal, found out.

U. S. Marshal Holohan sent Larry, his prize gunman, into the "badlands" near Greenville, after Peter Madero and Larry Keenan, accused of selling liquor to Indians.

When he came upon the men, Larry, instead of drawing a gun, handed them a box of fancy San Francisco chocolates and then arrested them while they were eating it.

The men are in jail at Sacramento awaiting trial and Larry is back in the federal building boasting that a box of candy is worth more than a gun.

San Francisco is facing an office boy famine.

There ain't none.

J. B. McLoughlin of the state employment bureau, reports that requests for office boys go unfilled because no applicants have applied.

"I remember the time," said McLoughlin, "when a small newspaper ad drew from ten to forty. Today you can't find an office boy, and I don't know where they've gone."

"I have several orders for office boys here," he added, and can't fill them. I think the day of the 'office girl' to replace the boy has arrived.

FORTUNA, CAL., May 10.—Farmers of southern Humboldt county are receiving advice and information regarding the best methods of making their land yield the best and biggest crops of potatoes, at a meeting being held by the state horticultural commission here today. It is part of a campaign now in progress to increase California's potato production.

George P. Weldon, deputy state horticultural commissioner and Eugene H. Grubb, potato expert, are conducting the meeting. Tomorrow a similar meeting will be held at Eureka.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

FRANK BALTHIS ADDRESSES STUDENTS—MRS. WOODS GIVES GARDEN LECTURE

Wednesday morning at 11:15 a special assembly was called for the purpose of making up for the one missed last Friday. Mr. Moyle first made several announcements, after which Frank Balthis, Glendale's champion orator, was introduced to the audience. Frank has come out first in the Suburban League of Oratory, and is now entered with five other schools' candidates in the all-Southern California Oratorical contest, which takes place in about two weeks. Upon the continued yells "speech" and "we want Balthis," Frank gave a modest little talk in which he assured his many followers that he will do all that is in his power to win the much coveted first place for Glendale.

The most important part of the assembly was the stereopticon lecture given by Mrs. Nanno Woods in the last half of the period. Her subject was "Home Gardens" and she succeeded quite well in interesting the students with this vital question. The first slide to be shown was a colored copy of the stars and stripes. At the appearance of our national emblem everyone rose to their feet and repeated the allegiance to the flag. The next slide was a picture of the president, and such a patriotic demonstration accompanied its appearance on the screen that the lecture could not be resumed for several minutes.

The remainder of the slides were mostly of home garden activities in and around Glendale. Mrs. Woods stated that some lots will be obtained this summer by the Glendale Garden society whereby all the student farmers of Glendale and vicinity will have a chance to dispose of their surplus vegetables. This plan will greatly facilitate matters for our youthful agriculturalists and now that they are assured of means of selling their produce many more vacant lots have been signed for. Mrs. Woods also announced that small buttons representing "The Soldiers of the Soil" have been placed on sale for ten cents, the proceeds to go for building Glendale's public market next summer. The assembly closed by the entire audience singing the new song by Walt Le Noir Church, "Plant, Plant, Plant."

Elaborate plans have been made by the members of the Rostrom to make their first banquet of the year today the best of its kind ever given by any school society. Berna Martin, the club president, says that thirty-seven plates will be served, and that it'll be some feed!

Thousands of tons of grapes was issued today by the University of California.

The university officials declare such sulphuring can be done at a cost of 25 cents an acre. It is urged that all shoots from 6 to 12 inches long should be sulphured immediately for the first time, again in about two weeks and a third time when the vines are in blossom. The sulphur should be sprinkled in the form of a fine powder and every leaf on the vines should be treated.

Agricultural authorities declare that if these instructions are carried out, the grape production of California can be increased by thousands of tons.

ARMY BILL CONFERENCE ENDS

MEASURE GOES TO CONGRESS WITH ROOSEVELT DIVISION AMENDMENT ELIMINATED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The conferees on the army bill came to an agreement this morning. They eliminated the Roosevelt division amendment, the amendment providing for volunteer cavalry on the border, changed the prohibition amendment to apply only to furnishing liquor to men in uniform and placed the age limit at 21 to 40. It is believed the demands of the country will hasten the approval of the bill in both houses. President Wilson is waiting only for Congressional approval of the bill before beginning the selective draft. It is believed the first half million will be selected within three months.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

DR. HARROWER WILL DISCUSS REDUCING FOOD COSTS FROM MEDICAL STANDPOINT

The present food crisis, or near crisis, is calling public attention to a subject that has been worthy of more consideration than it has hitherto received. For years the writer has emphasized the importance of the study of a "properly balanced dietary" in his Science classes, as leading to the better nourishment of the body as well as more economical management of the household. Most pupils have received such instruction with commendable tolerance for the instructor's hobby, and have continued to use as many superfluous thousands of calories of carbohydrates and hydrocarbons in the form of candy, chocolate, peanuts or ice cream as their taste demanded and their nickels could supply. They continued to be overfed and undernourished. But necessity is a great compeller of the attention. It excites the interest after reasoning and persuasion have failed.

It need not unduly alarm us to recognize with the economist that excessive food prices indicate the first page of famine; in the second stage, many are hungry; in the third, emaciated, starving, dying multitudes. We are not at all likely to experience even the second stage if we do our duty and produce more and use less.

But the food situation has been recapitulated until we are in a perplexing maze. "What Germany has done," has been discussed until like "much study" it is "a weariness unto the flesh." What we want to know is, "How can one spud be made to do the work of two?" or "Can one substitute porkless beans for porthouse steaks?" In other words we want definite and concrete facts, not literature or oratory.

The question is a serious one. We must produce more and lose less. Dr. Russell, Mrs. Woods and others have been doing work here in Glendale, the importance of which few realize now, in encouraging a greater production in small units and so releasing the demand by that much upon the larger production units. We can and must attack the inimical situation at every vulnerable point. Therefore how we may use less becomes an important consideration. If our dietary is well balanced and wholesome we desire less food or at least less expensive foods. At the same time we are both healthier and happier, and our household expenses are much less.

On Tuesday evening, May 15, this vital question will be most capably discussed by Dr. H. R. Harrower in the High School Auditorium in a free lecture entitled "Reducing the High Cost of Living from a Medical Standpoint." Dr. Harrower has the rare ability of entertaining you while he instructs you. Let us show our appreciation of the Doctor's public-spirited generosity by our attendance and by bringing our friends. May there be "standing room only." C. E. HOUDYSHEL.

MISS SPICKERMAN TO BE A JUNE BRIDE

In honor of Miss Lois Spickerman, whose marriage to Mr. Riley Proctor is scheduled to take place during the month of June, Miss Lila B. McConnell entertained most charmingly with a miscellaneous shower, at her home 323 N. Maryland, Wednesday evening.

Cecil Bruner roses formed the decorations, while the gifts, which were varied, useful and beautiful, were presented to the bride-to-be in a huge basket trimmed in pink tulle and roses. Each guest was presented with a tiny may basket, on the handle of which perched an ornamental canary bird holding the wedding announcement in its beak. This pretty conceit caused a great deal of pleasure and surprise among the guests.

Various games were indulged in, and dainty refreshments served.

The guests included Mesdames Wm. Knox, Alex McDonald, Frank Matthison, Raymond Lusby, Charles Erling, Charles Starkey, Jack Wagon, Henry Webb, Bloomer, Linn Spickerman, Claude Case, and Misses Frances Klein, Esther Hamilton, Esther Andre, Mabel Sanford, and Helen Wright.

A number of Glendale maidens, patriotically inclined, have joined the practical nursing classes now being organized at the Red Cross Headquarters in Los Angeles. This course, it is now announced, will include 72 hours practical nursing in a Los Angeles hospital before being called to the front as a Red Cross nurse.

C. OF C. EXHIBITS

MR. BRALY OFFERS PRIZE TO ENCOURAGE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DISPLAYS

The fine plate-glass cases in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce are now in place and ready for special exhibits. As each case may be locked and the owner of the exhibits can keep the key, friends of Glendale have a good opportunity to place on exhibition in Glendale's Chamber of Commerce family heirlooms, relics of special value from the San Fernando Valley, curios and articles of virtu generally from anywhere that will likely be of interest to Glendaleans or visitors to Glendale.

We would gladly receive, properly display and gratefully give publicity to any unusually fine products of Glendale industries or anything produced in the San Fernando Valley.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce has limited room for such display, "But Watch Us Grow."

Within a year, perhaps, the infant will become—but wait and see. Meanwhile, will not every one who can, lend a hand and aid in making your and our Chamber of Commerce whatever you think it ought to be?

The wish and intention is to have, as soon as may be, a Chamber of Commerce of which every Glendelian may be justly proud, with a "working faith" therein, born of a sense of personal proprietorship and a realization of individual Chamber-of-Commerce duty done.

Why not take a heartily welcomed look in, see what your Chamber of Commerce is doing, and what YOU can do to help it properly express our beautiful Glendale?

The Secretary and General Manager, or his Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Catharine Church, will always be there during business hours to arrange for any proffered exhibits, or give any information required, distribute Glendale literature, or receive addresses of non-residents to whom such literature will be sent.

Both telephones are installed: Sunset 249J; Home Blue 258.

WALT. LE NOIR CHURCH, Secretary and General Manager, Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Note: The Glendale Chamber of Commerce has many seats and is a convenient Rest Room.

Mr. John Hyde Braly (205 N. Brand Blvd.) life member of Glendale Chamber of Commerce, has offered a ten-dollar gold piece as the first prize for the most interesting exhibit in one of those plate glass cases.

P. S. The invitation is extended to any one to offer special prizes for any particular kind of exhibit in which the donor may be most interested.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF HOME GUARDS

In making this report to the public, the Women's Auxiliary of the Home Guards of Glendale wishes to call attention to the fact that they are doing real work and getting real results. There isn't a "slacker" in the whole organization, neither is the organization a hot-bed of impractical theories. Their report, which follows, speaks for itself:

At the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary at the Glendale Union High School Wednesday Dr. Russell gave a splendid talk on "Food Conservation." A report on the proceeds of the card party given at the home of Mrs. John Robert White, recently, was given; $36.00 was realized. Outside donations added to this bring the amount of money now in the treasury up to $40.09.

The Auxiliary has to report that the Litchfield Lumber Co. furnished men and teams and plowed up between forty and fifty lots for persons who wished to plant gardens and had no money to pay for that service. Also that the City Trustees will plow a lot for $1.25 and lay pipes to carry water free of charge.

The community is requested to save tin cans and fruit and vegetable baskets. There is a great shortage of tin in the United States. The cans and baskets will be called for.

There will be speakers or teachers sent around over the country to small clubs, etc., to teach women how to can and conserve fruits and vegetables in the best possible manner.

Mrs. Gregg is chairman of the magazine committee. This committee is collecting magazines and periodicals to be sent to the soldiers.

There will be a benefit given at the High School, May 25th. Anyone interested in this work should get in touch with Mrs. West, chairman.

CO-OPERATION IN BUSINESS

The success of a business community is very much what the people of that community make it. In a city of the population of Glendale it is possible for the business men to so thoroughly co-operate with one another that they will add greatly to the amount of business done by all of the merchants. If the man who sells dry goods will do all of his trading in Glendale with the merchants who sell other lines of merchandise, such as hardware, groceries, tea and coffee, drugs, automobiles, etc., and if the man who sells hardware in turn will buy merchandise from the man who sells dry goods and from the others who sell other kinds of merchandise, there will be co-operation established that is of great value to all who are engaged in business in this city.

There is usually too much of an independent spirit existing in a business community. The man who sells one kind of merchandise is anxious to get all of the trade possible without taking any thought of patronizing his fellow merchants who are selling other lines of merchandise. It is a very easy matter to discuss this question, but it is a more difficult one to have it put into practice. It is one of the faults of human beings to look at these things from a selfish standpoint.

From this date, if every merchant in Glendale would adopt a rule to patronize, so far as possible, other merchants who are engaged in different lines of business than himself, it would not be many months until Glendale would be a much more live business center than it is at present. Not only would this plan give each merchant more business, but the practicing of such a plan would be a good example to the people who are not engaged in business and who are more apt to become patrons of Glendale stores when it is made known to them that there is co-operation among the merchants themselves.

It is hardly to be expected that the average citizen who is not familiar with the fundamental principles of the retail business will be induced to patronize his home merchants when he learns that the home merchants do not patronize one another.

It should be the slogan of every business man, "Buy it in Glendale."

BUY HOME-MADE GOODS

The business element in every community of California will cordially approve of a letter sent out by Executive Secretary Charles R. Thorburn, of the Home Industry League of California, to every employee of every firm which holds membership in his League.

The name of each employee, with his or her home address, was furnished the League by every big employing firm belonging to the League, at request of Mr. Thorburn, so that each could be written to at the home address to prevent any loss of employers' time through the reception and reading of the letters at the employees' place of business. And each letter was personally signed by Secretary Thorburn, so important did he consider the perusal by each of the recipients.

Firms which did not send in their lists of employees are invited by the Home Industry League to post copies of the letter on their employee bulletin boards to the end that each firm in the State, no matter where it be located, may participate in the benefits to be derived by everyone through the spreading of this "Buy-at-Home" doctrine. The letter follows:

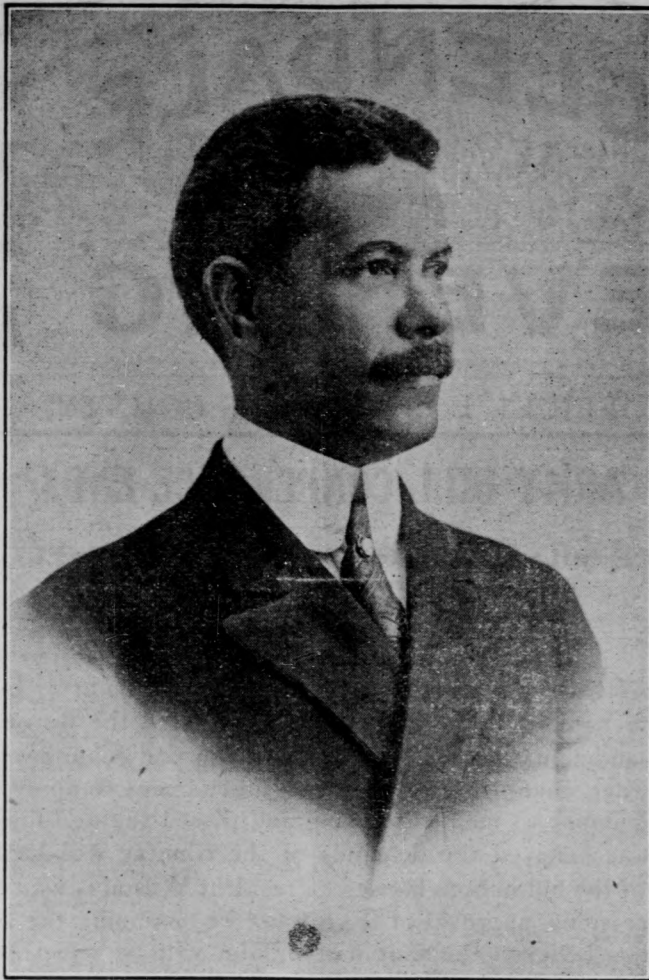

"As you know, the entire country is now being swept with a crusade for THRIFT. This does not mean that you should deny yourself anything. It means that you should merely exercise thought in HOW and WHERE to spend the money you intend to spend.

"Only a few moments' reflection is all you need to have to realize that since you are earning your own living in California, the more that California prospers the more prosperous will you be yourself. The more cash which is kept in circulation in the State, for goods bought in the State and made in the State, the easier will cash remain for you and your fellow-employees. It must be obvious, then, that true thrift comes from buying home-made goods from your home-town merchants.

"There are manufacturers in this State who spend ALL their money in California for labor and material, who make everything necessary that you eat, drink or wear, and if you buy California-made goods, the money you spend stays right here at home and is divided among your brothers, your sisters and your friends. This makes times better for you; makes busier factories and stores; more people are employed at better wages. It is up to you and your family to help home manufacturers.

"When you spend even a nickel, see that it buys some article Made in California. Remember this when you spend your salary or wages."

The Appellate Court recently handed down a decision upholding the act which provides for subsidies for county hospitals caring for tuberculosis cases according to the standard required by the State Board of Health. The constitutionality of this act had been questioned, it having been claimed that the state has no right to appropriate money for institutions not owned by the state and not entirely under its control. The decision of the court, written by Justice Hart and concurred in by Justices Chipman and Burnett, takes the ground that the constitution nowhere places the burden of maintaining, supporting and caring for the indigent sick upon the counties of the state. It holds that the burden of maintaining places for the care of such persons has not been transferred from the state to the counties. It holds that counties are merely agents of the state and the state may exercise any functions which it had previously delegated to such local agencies. The decision means much in the control of tuberculosis in California. The continuance of the state tuberculosis subsidy will, without doubt, reduce the tuberculosis death rate greatly.

WELL ARMED

By Margaret Mason
(Written For The United Press)
Annett's for preparedness
So keeps on the fight
Of hoisting up dumb bells
Both morning and night.
That gowns would be sleeveless
This season she wist
So seeks to be well armed
From shoulder to wrist.

NEW YORK, May 11. Sleeves are indeed becoming a minus quantity. Soon they will be as extinct as the ichthyornis. In seasons past we have bravely and unflinchingly presented arms to leg-o-mutton, bishop, puff, bell, tight, flowing, mousquetaire, wing and angel sleeves but this year a sleeve by any other name would still be next to nothing.

At least this sleeveless fashion will free us from the shadow of arrest for carrying concealed weapons since we no longer carry our arms up our sleeves but go around brandishing them quite open and above board.

Positively anyone appearing in anything as obsolete and outrageous as a sleeve in an evening gown would be taken out and shot at sunrise. Even the ordinary quota of two jeweled straps or two bead strands, one over each shoulder, has become a bit too sleazy for the extreme sleeveless enthusiasts and so they are left with but a single strap to cling to.

In their struggle for existence the sleeves in the afternoon and daytime frocks and gowns are worn to mere shadows of their former substantial selves. They are thin and fragile and wraithlike of Georgette crepe, chiffon, net or shadow laces. Most of them have dwindled or shrunk to half of their former great lengths and as elbow sleeves are content at most to reach to the funny bone.

Just a few regulation sleeves there are left in daytime frocks that will pass muster. These are for wear with the new sleeveless jackets and short coats. For yes, even the coats are being born and worn unsleeved this season. Saucy little straight-cut, hip-length, affairs they are of serge, gabardine, velvet or satin, usually elaborately embroidered in gaily colored threads. They are perfect in every sense except a sleeve sense and when it comes to the places where these ought to be there is absolutely nothing. You must bear with these little coats however. Though they have their shortcomings they are not really meant for wear with bare arms.

For every little sleeveless coat there is a fetching frock with sleeves to bear it company and thus supply all deficiencies. If lack of a lack of sleeves must be dubbed a deficiency. Zuaue, bolero and monkey jackets are numbered among these smart new sleeveless coatees and pony jackets, too, are very racey. Those that aren't embroidered are stitched and almost all and every one boasts a tassel or two somewhere on it. The sleeves on the gowns that go with these sleeveless coats invariably bob with a tassel at their cuff. Sort of survival of the fittest these sleeves are, too, since they are close fitting and arm fitted.

Appropos of the finish of the fast disappearing sleeve species, whether it is a quick finish or not, at least it is a novel one in almost every instance.

One is tied around the wrist with a little tassel-ended ribbon and then flares out again in a fitted rill below the tie. Another Georgette sleeve in a taffeta frock has a snug little cuff of the folded taffeta finished with a flat pump bow with one loop longer than the other juts out to the side in a most perky fashion.

Another sleeve to a crepe dress with a beaded bodice has a beaded cuff that fits tight up to the elbow and then flares out into a fullness of unbeaded crepe.

Another of gabardine has a tight cuff with three rows of stitching fastened with a flat bone button, the stitching and the buttons repeated three times up to the elbow where the sleeve juts out at a tangent. A white satin finish on a Chinese blue charmeuse sleeve is a cuff that turns down with two points over the hand that are adangle each with a white tassel just waiting to drop into ones soup.

So you see you may scrape up a sleeve or two to laugh in this season but the laugh is bound to be an empty or hollow one and nine times out of ten it is apt to be on you.

Nothin' Much

The Spring is here with balmy breeze
With flowering shrub and budding trees
But I sing of that playful tease
The first mosquito.

The poets rave o'er flower and grass,
While I most coldly let them pass
For something really with some class
The new potato

And when my wife with tact so rare
Says she feels Springtime in the air
My spirits down, right then and there
To Zero go.

O Spring, sweet season of the year
You bring housecleaning days so near
I'll be a pessimist I fear
First thing I know.

Ossifer, sweep out Padded Cell
No. 9,999—here's another Spring Poet.

And what's happened to that good old song—
"I didn't ray-haze my bi-hoy to be a soljer"?

There must be a lot of brand new tourists in Los Angeles. We generally have a spell of cold or rainy weather about the time we get a fresh carload of tourists who have never been to California before, and who waste no time in telling us it's just as cold here as it is in Iowa.

Good evening, and I wish you luck.
JUST BILLY.

RED CROSS BENEFIT TEA

The ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon club are bending every effort just now toward individual service in and financial support of the American Red Cross. With this avenue of service in mind a large affair has been planned at the home of Mrs. Mable Franklin Ocker, 200 South Central avenue, for Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. Mrs. Ocker is the popular and energetic secretary of the Glendale Auxiliary of Red Cross, and with the club ladies imbued with the contagion of her spirit, Friday's affair is sure to be a great success which through the 25-cent admissions will add a tidy sum to the much-needed money for supplies.

A remarkably fine program has been secured, many gifted ones gladly offering their talents to aid this praiseworthy work. All club women are urged to be present and to bring their friends. Following are those who will appear on the program:

Miss Priscilla Butterfield of Los Angeles, a vocalist of high standing, recently heard at the State Convention of Women's Clubs at Pasadena. Miss Butterfield studied for four years in New York under William Nelson Burritt. She is now engaged in concert work, teaching and choir work.

Miss Rachael Fricks, also of Los Angeles, will give some fine violin numbers.

Miss Lindsay, the aesthetic and interpretative dancer whose appearance at the Christmas program of the club was so much enjoyed, will appear. Mrs. H. R. Boyer will accompany Miss Lindsay on the piano.

Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee, a local club member and a pupil of Mrs. Mazie Fullman Garrett, will read.

Dr. Harrower will give several vocal numbers accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy W. Bosserman.

Isalah Sinclair, violinist, and a pupil of Julius Kranz, will play Adoration by Borowski and a Song Without Words by Tschakowsky.

Light refreshments will be served. Remember the time and place: Friday at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Ocker, 200 South Central avenue.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club unanimously passed a resolution yesterday afternoon to the effect that no more entertainments will be given by the club for the benefit of the club house fund during the war.

The Canadian Society of Southern California meets on Tuesday evening May 15th, at 8 o'clock, at the Gamut Club, 1040 So. Hope St., Los Angeles. Dancing, cards and refreshments and a good time for all. Visiting Canadians are very welcome. Come and meet old friends.

Mrs. E. R. Lott and three children, Evelyn, Frederick and Edward left Wednesday morning for their home in St. Paul. Mrs. Lott had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hartmann, 1020 Chestnut St. for more than ten months.

A large number of musical devotees from Glendale will attend the reception, concert and tea to be held in the Hamburger Auditorium tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Many celebrities in the musical world are scheduled to appear, and a brilliant affair is anticipated.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, First and Orange streets, and Mrs. E. W. Kinney, 1223 West Seventh, attended the music conference of the L. A. D. federation, Monday, May 7th, at the Hamburger auditorium. The address, "Community Music," was in the able hands of Seward A. Simons. J. Dupois had charge of the practical illustration of community chorus.

Everyone in Glendale has a new way to do their bit, helping America to win the war, by saving Tin Foil for the American Red Cross. This Tin Foil which otherwise is wasted is being gathered throughout Southern California, by a committee of the Red Cross, of which, Mrs. Otheman Stevens, of 936 West 20th Street Los Angeles, is chairman. In Glendale, Mrs. Charles Branaman, of 1520 Milford Street will call for any tin foil that may be saved for this worthy cause, and turn it over to the Red Cross Committee. Mrs. Branaman may be reached by phone Glendale 545 W. This tin foil is sold, the proceeds going to the care and comfort of wounded soldiers.

Public acknowledgment of all tin foil received will be made by the Red Cross Committee.

TICKETS GOING FAST

A committee of Glendale ladies is actively at work selling tickets for the next Red Cross concert, to be held at the Glendale Union High School Monday evening next, May 14th, at 7:45.

Yesterday they collected a very gratifying amount and with such a start it looks as though there would not be an empty seat in the large auditorium. Practically everyone approached bought tickets or made a donation.

Remember that the proceeds are to be used entirely for buying materials and supplies from the Glendale Auxiliary, so that the numerous willing hands may have plenty of sewing and other profitable work to keep them busy for the altogether humanitarian work of the Red Cross.

ALL READY FOR THE BIG SHOW

After three months of active preparation, the Knights of Columbus of Glendale are ready for their "Minstrel Show De Luxe," which will be given at the Palace Grand Theatre tomorrow night, May 11th. With a chorus of thirty splendid voices and a number of the best-known soloists in Southern California, the Knights of Columbus' performance is guaranteed to far surpass anything of the kind that has ever been given in Glendale.

The featured singers will be: Mrs. H. B. Henry, Mrs. L. Patch, Mrs. Kensell, Miss Viola Yorba, Mr. James Reynolds, Mr. E. Richards, Mr. Joe Irion, Mr. N. E. Otis, Mr. Leo Goode, Mr. Martinez and Mr. Vincent Salmacia. There will be exhibitions of Spanish dancing, clog, buck and wing dancing. Al Van, one of the greatest bone artists in Southern California, will have a part in the performance; also Charley Woods, Joe A. Griffin and Geo. Dodson.

Melvin and Westwood will appear in a new sketch, "Have a Clam Shell." Charles E. Schilling, the Haverly minstrel man, will demonstrate his ability to get a tune out of any old thing, any old time.

James Reynolds & Co. will be seen to advantage in a dancing and singing act. Walter Buttery and Billy Coe will also appear in a new act.

The finale is scheduled to be both new and novel, "The Noble Order of the Full Moon," with J. H. Mellish as the full moon, assisted by the White Star Patrol of Glendale.

This is to be a guaranteed good show. All aboard for the K. of C. Minstrels.

Mrs. Kate Dimson of Los Angeles is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Veach, 1534 Pioneer Drive, for several days.

Mrs. Antoinette S. Thaxter of 1542 Riverdale Drive is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Barlow, of St. Louis. Mrs. Barlow, who expects to be here two months at least, thinks she never saw quite such a delightful spot as Glendale. She believes the air out here is full of inspiration, enthusiasm and wonderful things like that, is quite sure that those who live here all the time are favored mortals.

IN POLICE COURT

After a three days' search the Glendale police force was successful in capturing H. C. Seamon, who assaulted H. A. Wilson in Merrill's Furniture Store, in Glendale, Monday afternoon. Seamon, who is an aristocratic looking, well-dressed man of sixty-four, gave the officers plenty of resistance when they arrested him in his room at the York-shire Hotel in Los Angeles Wednesday morning.

Finding himself trapped, according to a police officer who was stationed in the hall, Seamon used abusive and threatening language over the telephone, presumably to the office force below, demanded why they had let the officers come up to his room, how he could get away without being caught, and threatened to cause them trouble when he did escape.

Judge Lowe in sentencing Seamon expressed surprise that a man of his age should find occasion to do the things that he had done; reproved Seamon in no uncertain terms for attempting to escape the law, and then assured Seamon that because of his years, the maximum sentence would not be imposed upon him.

In closing Judge Lowe said: "The crime you committed Monday afternoon was a misdemeanor not a felony—but the crime you committed this morning, was a felony, not a misdemeanor."

Seamon's sentence included a fine of $100 and sixty days in the county jail. We understand the jail sentence will not be enforced providing Mr. Seamon remains away from Glendale.

PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Secretary of the Glendale Red Cross, reports that Mrs. Martha Wright, 1433 Myrtle street, Glendale, has just donated seven very fine and serviceable hospital sponges, knitted by herself.

It would be as interesting as it might be sad to follow the future history of those seven little gifts, into which doubtless were knitted the prayer of their maker that they might aid in restoring to health some wounded American soldier, or some other hero who falls fighting for his country.

LA CANADA

NEW SCHOOL OPENING

The new grammar school building, recently completed by the La Canada School District, will be thrown open Friday, May 18th, at eight o'clock p. m.

It was thought most appropriate to have this happy event celebrated by having the school children themselves entertain the public and the pupils will present a delightful little play entitled, "The Posey Bed." Elaborate preparation has been made, special costumes provided, and we feel sure that all who attend will thoroughly enjoy the presentation of this play by the little people.

As there will be no admission charged and you cannot well miss the school building, it being located in the center of the Valley at the intersection of Michigan avenue and School street, there will be no excuse for you not being there.

Exceedingly attractive posters have been prepared by some of the pupils. No doubt you have seen some of them and have been wondering who the artist was. Come to this entertainment and get acquainted with them for there are a number of embryo artists in the personnel of this theatrical troupe.

We hope that you will mark this date upon your calendar, reserve the evening for this purpose and come and help celebrate the opening of this splendid school building.

Allow us to remind you again of the date, Friday, May 18th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Be sure to come.

Mr. Brooks, president of the La Canada Improvement association, announces that the association will not hold a meeting on Saturday evening of this week.

Twenty members of the La Canada Red Cross organization met last Tuesday afternoon in the school building. Although no new members signed up on Tuesday, Mrs. J. Murry of Craig avenue took in two applicants this last week, which now makes the total enrollment forty-eight.

Answering an inquiry made by the La Canada Red Cross branch for an instructor in First Aid or Home Nursing, Miss Dorothy Dobbins of the Pasadena chapter, expressed the possibility of making satisfactory arrangements for such a course.

Mrs. Murray, who has had charge of this matter, applied preferably for Miss Delamere to conduct the class. Word came from Pasadena that Miss Delamere was very busy and would not be able to take charge of the class for several weeks yet. Another instructor can be supplied immediately for Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday mornings or Monday afternoon. The expense for a fifteen-course lesson will be forty-nine dollars. This is for from ten to twenty pupils. This fee includes a small text-book. Because of the increasing number of classes being formed, Pasadena asks to be informed as soon as possible which day would be the most convenient for a class. For this reason those who wish to take the course are urged to see Mrs. Murry or Mrs. Lester immediately. If at least ten do not sign up, it will not be possible to form the class. The La Canada Red Cross will meet as usual next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the school house.

Although the annexation proposition has been rather quiet for the past week, the election which decides whether or not Frintridge and selected parts of lower La Canada will join Pasadena has been called for May 28. The election board consists of Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Chas. Olsen and Capt. Jamison.

Under the immediate pressure of a severe operation and weakened by a lasting illness, little Charley Skow, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Skow, old settlers of northern La Canada, passed away last Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Angeles hospital, Los Angeles. For four years Charley had been suffering. He was the victim of infantile paralysis, which left him not quite as strong as most boys. The boy had been attending the La Crescenta grammar school. Sunday Charley went down to Mr. J. Schefflin's on Palm drive, apparently as well as usual. He was not taken seriously ill until Tuesday morning. The ambulance was summoned and carried the boy to the Angeles hospital, at Los Angeles. Dr. R. S. Lanterman of Michigan avenue performed the operation. The boy was in such a condition that the operation was the last hopeless extremity. The funeral took place Friday afternoon. The La Crescenta school children attended the services. They wished to pay a last tribute to little Charley, whom they had learned to love for his honest, upright nature.

Cheer up! They are coming. Three new Fords have arrived.

For the last six months Mr. Max Green, Ford dealer in La Canada and vicinity, has had great difficulty in delivering machines. It has been impossible to obtain them because of the immense demand all over the country. The manufacturers claim that the Ford demand exceeds the supply by 300 per cent. Mr. Green has had nine Fords sold for several months. Until this week he has been unable to get a promise from the factory of any machines. Now three cars have arrived, with a promise of more very soon. Although the delay has been inconvenient, it is very evident that the demand will be supplied up to date from now on.

While staking out her cow last

Sunday morning, Mrs. Potts of Michigan avenue was hooked by the animal and cut badly across the abdomen. Mr. Potts took her immediately to the "Thornycroft" hospital in Glendale. The doctor found it necessary to take twenty-two stitches in the cut. The cow was a mean animal, given to spells of "hooking." Mrs. Potts is recovering rapidly.

Under the supervision of Miss Horne and Miss Housen, teachers in the La Canada grammar school, the operetta "The Posey-Bed" will be given Friday night, May 18, in the school house auditorium. This will be the christening of the new auditorium as it is the first performance to be held there. The operetta is filled with mysticism and dainty, dancing fairies. The story is carried out with the children impersonating flowers. Miss Aldine Norton of Fairview avenue, who is attending the normal school, has trained the children in the dancing. The entire production is one to be commended highly.

In spite of a rather small crowd, the La Canada club dance, which took place at the hall last Saturday night, was a success. At first the crowd seemed as though it was waiting for something to turn up. But toward the middle of the evening things began to liven.

Suffering from a severe illness, Mrs. J. P. Anderson of Bellview avenue was taken to the hospital Tuesday afternoon to undergo an operation. As far as friends know, she is recovering rapidly.

The Valley Water Co. reservoir, which has recently been completed by contractor Paul H. Ehlers of Hollywood, is complete. However, the job will not be accepted until the reservoir has been fully tested. It is being filled this week.

TUJUNGA

The Woman's club held a very interesting session Thursday, May 3d. The topic of "Household Economics" was discussed from the bread point of view, which included all cereals. Many economical recipes were given and the whole trend was for a more careful manner of living. The cooking of rice in its natural state was discussed from various points of view. Dr. Peters sent in a shredded wheat which she prepares; also fruit cookies and flat coffee cakes which were declared good. The work of the club has called forth much commendation during its yearly sessions on account of its practical programs. Live issues of the day, such as pertain to the home, are freely discussed at the meetings and prove highly enjoyable. The next meeting, Thursday, May 17, will have "Vegetables" for its discussion, in its every phase, from planting to cooking and canning.

Mr. Stewart motored to Fillmore to take Messrs McClenroth, Warren and Harry Grovenor, who are to work under Joe Foster on the Sespe check dams.

Joe Foster left Thursday for Fillmore, where he will superintend the building of the check dams in the Sespe.

Wilnot Parcher, who left the valley last week for his home in Glendale, finds it does not agree with him there and has again returned. We hope we may be able to keep him here, although sorry that the asthma is such an unpleasant guest.

The Ladies' Aid held its monthly meeting with Mrs. Whittaker on Stevens Way, Thursday, May 3d. A pleasant time is reported.

The family of Mr. Freeman are installed in Miss Hodge's bungalow on Los Angeles street, and will remain for the summer.

Mrs. Mandery of Glendale and daughter, Miss Livingston, are staying at the home of Mrs. Fortinier on San Ysidro street. Mrs. Mandery owns four acres near the Barlow tract and contemplates putting a house there if she can secure water.

Mrs. Montgomery, who has occupied the Westell house on Stephens way for three months, leaves for her home in Santa Barbara this week.

There is quite a boom in the bee business in this section and members of the Bee club are enthusiastic over the outlook. Mrs. Chas. Dean and Miss Emma Kraft are the latest to invest in swarms and are both enjoying the work. Six new swarms with tested queens have been ordered from Riverside. The sugar question is being solved. The hiving of new swarms is the order of the day.

Mr. Mac Vine of Manzanita drive reports the capture of four swarms of bees this season. Somebody is losing his profits.

Mr. P. J. Blake of Cedar street was called Friday by the government to report at San Francisco, Seattle and Washington, D. C. Mrs. Blake will remain in Tujunga for the present.

Miss Chalfont of Sunset boulevard suffered a stroke of apoplexy on Friday of last week. At present she is resting comfortably with prospect of speedy recovery.

To the Daughters of America
By Elizabeth Morewood Shaner
To arms, to arms, ye daughters of America,
Come forth, and let the whole world know
That if you can't be a man behind a gun,
You can be a woman behind a hoe.
You are our equals now, my daughters,
Your help is needed in this strife.
And by hard work and great good will
You can give us the staff of life.

Be true to the boys in blue, my daughters,
Be true to the boys in brown;
Then forward, march, take up this grand work
Without a tear or a frown.

Well ye know, my daughters, we sought not
This war, it was upon us thrust.
We could no longer hesitate. And for our Country's honor fight now we must

So daughters to arms and battle now,
Fight for the right and the good,
While the men are fighting for their country's honor,
You will fight for their food.

Take hold of the rake and spade,
Take hold of the hoe and the plow;
Then forward, march, with seeds in hand,
And do your planting now.

You must plow and harrow and rake,
Then spade and rake and then sow.
Then think of the men behind the guns
While you are behind the hoe.

And when the day's work is over and you
Are weary and watching the setting sun,
To the Father above breathe a prayer for the Safety of the man behind the gun.

And when this strife is ended, with peace and
Honor and without want or woe,
America then will be very proud of her
Women who stood behind the hoe.

A "FIRELESS" WARNING

It is not for economy's sake alone, but for the blessed convenience of them, that so many of us are welcoming fireless cookers to our homes. For those who can afford to provide themselves with the "boughten" kinds printed instructions dealing with the methods of most efficient use are generally included. But even those pamphlets of tempting recipes, with their careful directions, have been known to omit a certain rather vital fact about fireless, while those of us who contrive the homemade apparatus, using a box or candy pail or even the now classic ice cream freezer pail, may have to find out this same fact at cost of some goodly portion of leftover food or even by risk of slight illness.

The fact alluded to is this: Food of any sort served hot from its cooking in the "fireless" needs, as a rule, no additional heating to make it ready for the table. But should any remain it must never be set away for future use without being first brought to full boiling point and being kept there long enough to destroy the chance of its spoiling within the next few hours. This precaution, especially necessary in hot weather, is the only way to prevent the quick fermentation which follows the long, slow cooking operation at less than simmering heat, once the contents of the cooking kettle have stood cooling still more slowly in the open. Soup stock is particularly liable to cause trouble of this nature if not brought to a good bubbling point before setting away after removal from the fireless.

SUMMER CAMP FOR P. E.

That the Pacific Electric employees and their families will have a summer camp high in the San Bernardino mountains, was the information given out recently in San Bernardino by Edward C. Thomas, head of the Pacific Electric club of Los Angeles. Mr. Thomas, with General Agent R. E. Kelly, of the Pacific Electric, made a tour of the mountains yesterday on the famous "Rin of the World" drive and announces that the camp will in all probability be located in Little Bear valley near Camp Winifred or Camp Bluejay. The first portion of the camp will be constructed this summer and during the next two years even greater accommodations are to be made.

SAVE YOUR BOTTLES

A serious shortage of preserving jars and cans is threatened.

Glass bottles, especially wide-necked ones, are useful for putting up fruits, jellies and preserves.

Put up fruit juices in ordinary bottles.

Reserve regular preserving jars and cans for canning vegetables, soups and meats.—U. S. Department of Agriculture.

NATIONAL FLOWERS

The national flower emblem of France is the fleur-de-lys; of England, the rose. Spain has no official floral emblem, although the carnation is supposed to be the most popular flower. The United States has no national flower, but efforts have been made to have the abundant goldenrod adopted. The public school children of Alabama, Kentucky, Missouri and Nebraska have adopted it officially as the State flower. Georgia, Iowa, North Dakota and New York have adopted various kinds of roses. Other flowers, including the violet, bitter root, rhododendron and mountain laurel, have been chosen by other states.

The flower most associated with the Confederate states probably was the magnolia blossom.—Philadelphia Ledger.
